About the Seminar:

Industries in India have been maximizing their efforts to restore the ecological equilibrium, while targeting to attain the designed manufacturing capacity to meet the global demands. It is immutable to discharge wastes from industries in various states such as solid, liquid and gaseous during their manufacturing processes. Complying with Environmental Regulations through ETP and STP processes require high environmental expertise and updated chain of technologies.

Industries in India are compelled to update the Waste Management Technologies to satisfy Environmental Regulations prescribed by Ministry of Environment Forest and Climate Change, Central and State Pollution Control Boards. The focal and theme of one day Seminar Organized by IWMA, with the guidance of Tamilnadu Pollution Control Board are to guide the Industries with the strategies those need to be implemented among various categories of Industries to comply with the needs of Environmental Standards and to improve their Process Efficiency for better product Manufacturing Practices.

Who will be the beneficiaries?

Participants from Large, Medium, Small & Tiny industries that generate Hazardous Waste, classified under Red, Orange, Green and White categories. Participants from Central Govt. institutions like Railways, IOC, Port, ISRO, Cement, Automobile, Engineering, Pharmaceutical, Chemical, Textile, Leather, Electrical & Electronics, Electroplating, Recyclers (E-waste, petroleum based products, plastic, paints, acids, etc.) industries, General Managers, Managers, Liasoning officers, Environmental Consultants, ETP-STP in-charges, academicians, Research Scholars and Students may also participate to get the updated knowledge on the Waste Management.
