17TH ANNUAL GENERAL BODY MEETING

AMENDMENT TO THE NOTICE

The following amendment is being made in the Notice issued to all our member industries dt.01-07-2019. While all the 7 points remain the same in the Agenda, the following Point No.8 shall be incorporated.

8. A special Resolution will be placed in the 17th Annual General Body Meeting for adoption.

Associate Membership Annual Fees

Background:

- Associate Membership refers to “Engineering organizations, Educational institutions, service providers related to hazardous waste handling, corporate bodies or similar professional bodies which are directly connected to Environmental Management and are pursuing the above stated objectives”.
- The Associate Member is also entitled to all the rights and duties defined to other member industries except the voting rights.
- When IWMA fixes the Annual Subscription Fee for its member categories on turn over basis, the Annual Subscription Fee for the Associate Member should also be in the same parameter.

Resolution:

The Associate Membership Annual Fees shall be as follows, based on the turnover of the company or division in the preceding financial year:

Micro/ Tiny – Up to Rs.5 Crore - Rs.7,500/-

Small – Above Rs.5 Crore and Up to Rs.25 Crore - Rs.10,000/-

Medium – Above Rs.25 Crore and Up to Rs.50 Crore - Rs.15,000/-

Large - Above Rs.50 Crore - Rs. 25,000/-

Entrance Fee : Rs. 1000/- (One time during the new membership application)

- Except for Large Category Associate Members, other Associate Members have to submit auditor certificate with UDIN for providing turnover details, both at the time of joining IWMA and also at the time annual membership renewal.
- These restructured fees will be applicable from the financial year 2020-21 onwards.
