

Padma Seshadri, Siruseri wins first prize in Enviro

Chennai: More than 500 students from 150 schools in and around Chennai took part in cartoon drawing, mascot designing and live news reporting in the 11th edition of ENVIRO 2019, an environmental awareness competition conducted by Science Olympiad Foundation in collaboration with IWMA (Industrial Waste Management Association) at IIT Madras. Among juniors, the first prize was won by Sathvika from Hindustan International school, Guindy, the second prize by Yuvanthika from Boaz Public school, and the third prize by Dennis Hudson from St. Johns Public school, Medavakkam.

In middle-level competitions, first prize was won by Kaushalya and Samara from Chettinad Vidyashram, the second prize by Thanishkka and Sanjaram from Rishs International school and third prize by Kanishka and Tharika from Vel Tech Dr RR and Dr SR Matriculation School, Avadi.

Among seniors, the first prize was won by Ashwajit Singh and Pranav from Padma Seshadri, Siruseri, the second prize by Vaitheeswaran and Nidhi from The Pupil Saveetha Eco school and the third prize by Sakthiprian and Abdul Rahman from Amrita Vidyalayam, Nesapakkam.