

SOF conducted Environmental awareness competition at IIT Madras

Chennai, July 31: The 11 edition of ENVIRO 2019 an environmental awareness competition was conducted by Science Olympiad Foundation in collaboration with IWMA (Industrial Waste Management Association) at IIT Madras. More than 500 Students from 150 plus schools in and around Chennai had registered for competitions such as Cartoon Drawing in the junior level, Mascot Designing in the middle level & Live News reporting in the senior level. Awareness on water conservation was also given.

Professor Dr.T.S. Natarajan, IIT Tirupathi conducted a scientific program. The event was inaugurated by Mr K. Baskaran, Chairman IWMA and Prof K. Mangala Sunder, Head of Dept of Chemistry, IIT Madras.

The chief guest Mr.BijuBalendran, Managing Director and CEO, Renault-Nissan Automotive India Pvt Ltd gave away the prizes along with Mr.R.Ramsubbu from Tamil Nadu Pollution Control board, Chennai was the guest of honour.

In Juniors, the first prize was won by Sathvika from Hindustan International school, Guindy, Second prize Yuvanthika from Boaz Public school, Third prize Dennis Hudson from St.Johns Public school, Medavakkam

In Middle level, the first prize was won by Kaushalya and Samara from Chettinad Vidyashram, Second prize Thanishkka and Sanjaram from Rishs International school and third prize Kanishka and Thanika from Vel Tech Dr RR and Dr SR Matriculation school, Avadi.

In Seniors, the First prize was won by Ashwajit Singh and Pranav from Padmashadiri Senior Secondary school, Siruseri, Second prize Vaitheeswaran and Nidhi from The Pupil Saveetha Eco school and Third prize Sakthiprian and Abdul Rahman from Amrita Vidyalayam, Nesapakkam.